UPWARD TREND OF DEER HARVEST IN VIRGINIA

The statewide deer kill continued its upward climb during the past hunting season and the total of 13,976 was double that of five years ago. Looking ahead, C. F. Phelps, chief of the Game Division of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, says there is no reason why Virginia's sportsmen shouldn't harvest enough deer to double the present figure within the next few years.

Dear June,

We are very proud of one of our students this week, Eloise Couch, who was previously winner of the local oratorical contest. She journeyed to Petersburg yesterday to compete for the district winner and our A. H. S. student was the winner. Congratulations, Eloise! She will go to Norfolk Friday to compete in the zone contest.

Last week in the basketball field our boys were winners of their first game by a score of 51-31, with John Rothgeb being high scorer, marking up 17 points. However, on Thursday our boys met the defeat that ended their time in the tournament. Dan River was the winner by a score of 48-37, with Jerry George scoring 17 points for high scorer. The girls, playing their rivals, Brookville, met a defeat also, by a score of 46-31. I was high scorer, with 15 points. The boys, as well as the entire school, missed Coach Bragg last week, as he was ill the whole week. However, we are very pleased at his being back with us now.

The Spanish classes, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Cheatham, are going to have their annual Spanish banquet at Maude's Thursday night, the 10th. Mr. James Hall and his Spanish students from Concord High School, will be the guests. At this banquet Spanish foods will be served in order to help carry out the Spanish theme, which will prevail. The highlight of the evening will be the initiation of the first year class.

Last Wednesday we were entertained at having Mr. George Lee as the guest speaker for our assembly program, sponsored by the H-Y. Speaking of the Hi-Y club, the Tri-Hi-Y we decided to have for Model General Assembly. The world situation is to be thought to compel schools to have civil defense to all school children would be appropriate.

The Speech class is going to present their plays on March 17. Spending much time on them, we hope that they will be a success. Those who are participating in activity are John Rothgeb, Dixmouth Rothgeb, Bill Wood, Jimmy Couch, Bill Carson, and Ann Trent in "The Valiant"; Bobby Blanks, Robert Leffers, and Jane Mabley in "Suppressed Desires"; Mary Jane Cole, Bill Carson, Jane Lewis and Shelby Thompson in "The Tangled Web"; Pete Baber, Jimmy Mitchell, Bill Woody and Ann Ashworth in "Dust of Snows"; and Jane Holt, announcer.

The Senior class had a class meeting yesterday to decide on their trip. It was decided that the senior class will leave at 6:00 P. M. on May 12th and journey to Washington D. C. for our trip. Payments are being made to us so we can find ways of raising money in order to reduce the individual expense. Also in the Senior class, many of us are interested in the play. We have decided to give "No Place Like Home," a three acts. Many of us are trying for try-outs. However, as of the cast has not been chosen.

Today, the Forensic Club met. We discussed the Forensic Contest. Alice Ashworth, Joan Akers, Gertrude Kofink and Bobby Bagby presented during the club period speeches for the meet.

This concludes the local happenings around A. H. S. for now, looking for more news next week.

'Til then,
Jane.

KILL WILD GARLIC WITH 2,4-D SPRAYS

Late winter is the best time to kill wild garlic with 2,4-D, says J. M. Amos, weed specialist, VPI.

Regardless of where the garlic is growing, sprays for control should be applied before new bulbs begin to form in the soil. Bulbs begin to form in late March, early in April. The temperature at time of spraying should be 60 degrees or above for best results.

Where the garlic is growing in lawns or grass pastures, 2,4-D at the rate of ⅔ to 2½ pounds per equivalent per acre will usually give good results. Lower dosages and certain precautions must be taken when 2,4-D is applied to lawns or grass pastures for the control of weeds.

A leflet on the control of wild garlic in different situations in various crops is available from county agents, or from the Agricultural Extension Service, VPI, Blacksburg.

ABBITT ON COMMITTEE TO SELECT WINNERS OF FORESTRY AWARDS

The American Forestry Association is now completing plans for its annual presentation of its conservation awards to outstanding leaders in various fields of public service who are making significant contributions to preserving America's natural resources.

The Association's Awards Committee is in the process of receiving nominations for this year's awards, which will be presented in a ceremony at Jacksonville, Florida on October 5, in connection with the organization's annual meeting there.

Representative Watkins M. Abbitt (D-Va.) one of six members of the Awards Committee, announced in Washington this week that individuals or organizations may submit nominations for this year's awards and that every nomination will be considered along with those who are being considered by the committee in light of contributions which have been made by outstanding individuals throughout the country.

Nominations should be sent to the American Forestry Association headquarters at 919 Seventeenth Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C. They must be submitted by June 15 in order be declared valid.

Five awards are given annually to outstanding individuals in the fields of public information, business and industry, public servants education and general service.

Abbitt urged Virginians to submit nominations to the committee with the feeling "it is well to have expressions of our people in the consideration of these awards. We, as members of the Awards Committee, want to feel that we are not overlooking good possibilities for these awards."

The committee which will select the winners is composed of Robert N. Hoskins, of Norfolk, industrial forester of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad; Dr. M. D. Mobley, of Washington, D. C., executive-secretary of the American Vocational Association; Bryce C. Browning secretary-treasurer of the Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District; Arthur N. Spillers, of Washington, D. C., chief of Cooperative Forest Management, U. S. Forest Service; Louis H. Wilson, director of Information of the American Plant Food Council; and Abbitt.

Congressman Abbitt has served as a member of the Awards Committee for the past four years and has been active in the work of the Committee since 1950.

HARMONE IMPLANTS IN LAMBS TESTED

The effects of implants of pellets containing estrone (female sex harmone) on growth rates and carcass quality of suckling lambs on grass will be studied this summer at VPI Agricultural Experiment Station.

The use of similar hormone pellets in weaned lambs fed in the dry lot has been found by several experiment stations in the Midwest to increase the rate and efficiency of gain, but to distinctly lower quality of the carcasses.

Very little information is available on the effects of such treatment on suckling lambs.

The present VPI test is designed to measure the value of two kinds of hormone pellets, implanted at 35 pounds and at 50 pounds, on the growth rates, carcass quality, and profits from spring lambs.

Currently, the researchers say, there is not enough information available to make recommendation of the use of the implants by Virginia sheepmen.

The tests will be conducted by W. S. Wilkinson, J. S. Copenhaver, and R. C. Carter.

MORE PEOPLE BOUGHT FORD CARS IN 1954 than any other make!

*Ford passenger-car sales to customers outnumbered those of any other make by thousands

AND IT'S EASY TO SEE WHY!

Ford is the leader in ride

Ford was first in its field to introduce Ball-Joint Front Suspension—the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years. And, for '55, it's even better. Springs are set at an angle to smooth out even the tiniest bumps. It's the new Ford Angle-Poised Ride.

Ford is the leader in styling

Motorists know that Ford has set the style trend in the industry for years. And now, with styling inspired by the fabulous Thunderbird, Ford is farther out front than ever!

Ford is the leader in V-8 power

Ford was first in its field (by 23 years) to provide the advantages of V-8 power. Since that time, Ford has built over 14,000,000 V-8 engines—more than all other makers combined! For 1955, Ford offers two new and mighty V-8's, as well as a most modern Six—all with the split-second response of Trigger-Torque power!
